Community Foundation of Morgan County Executive Director Named Indiana Philanthropy Alliance IPA Board Member

INDIANAPOLIS, IND. — The Indiana Philanthropy Alliance (IPA) has announced that Ed Kominowski, Community Foundation of Morgan County Executive Director has been appointed to its board of directors as of January, 2017. IPA is a statewide non-profit network of and for Indiana's grantmaking community. The Alliance strives to champion, support, and connect its members as they transform Indiana through effective philanthropy.

"It is a sincere honor to join the current Board of Directors at the Indiana Philanthropy Alliance. The IPA provides a tremendous service to all community foundations and private foundations throughout Indiana. I truly believe this appointment is recognition of the Community Foundation of Morgan County as the philanthropic leader in our community," Kominowski stated. "The Community Foundation is uniquely positioned to have a profound impact on the citizens of our county through impact grant making that supports our non-profit community's continued success."

In a news release from IPA, Marissa Manlove, President and CEO of the Indiana Philanthropy Alliance stated, "This board class is made up of thoughtful, experienced and highly regarded philanthropy professionals." Manlove continued, "Their expertise and diversity ensures our membership association will continue as a leader in promoting integrity and advocating for a strong philanthropic sector."
